

9TH ANNUAL

WHISKEY IN THE COURTROOM

Evolving Trends in Forensic Science

March 10, 2023
Duke Law, Room 3041
8 AM to 4:30 PM

Sponsors

FORENSIC RESOURCES
OFFICE OF INDIGENT DEFENSE SERVICES

The Office of Indigent Defense Services provides assistance to North Carolina attorneys litigating complex scientific evidence through its Forensic Resource Counsel. Lawyer Sarah Rackley Olson works with public defenders and private appointed counsel and improves counsel's ability to understand forensic science evidence and achieve better outcomes in their cases.

forensicresources.org

Center for Criminal Justice & Professional Responsibility

The Duke Center for Criminal Justice and Professional Responsibility is devoted to the promotion of justice in criminal cases and to teaching and training students, lawyers, prosecutors, judges, and the general public to identify, remedy, and prevent the wrongful conviction of innocent people.

law.duke.edu/ccjpr

The Wilson Center brings together faculty and students at Duke University in law, medicine, public policy, and arts and sciences to pursue research, policy and law reform, and education to improve criminal justice outcomes.

wcsj.law.duke.edu

DNA EVIDENCE

The program is open to criminal defense attorneys and investigators and is expected to offer 6.0 CLE hours

law.duke.edu/ccjpr/symposium2023